Why choose Torquay International School ?

Dedicated

You are important to us and we will do everything we can to make sure you improve your English and enjoy your time here.

Experienced

We have been helping our students to improve their English since 1972 and we are passionate about teaching and caring for them.

Beautiful

The English Riviera has it all - award-winning beaches, busy towns and cities, breath-taking coastline and traditional English villages. All can be explored with friends or on our many organised activities and excursions.

“ All the staff are very understanding, it's like a big family. I met international students, improved my English and spent unforgettable moments here. ”

TORQUAY

Torquay is the most popular resort on the English Riviera, famous for its beaches, palm trees and warm climate.

- ❑ Voted England's Number One seaside resort (Trip Advisor 2015)
- ❑ More attractions than any other UK resort
- ❑ A favourite holiday destination of the British, with over 3 million visitors each year.

Home of Agatha Christie

World-famous author Agatha Christie was born and lived much of her life in Torquay, and her home at Greenway House is now a museum celebrating her life. Every September Torquay hosts the Agatha Christie Festival.

International Yachting Destination

Each year Torquay hosts several international sailing events and races, including the famous Solitaire du Figaro which stops in the harbour in July for several days.

“ We loved Torquay, it felt like home. The whole experience was amazing and 100% repeatable. ”

Federica and Xabier, Venezuela
